Christopher Ward of said city of Schenectada in said county, aged seventy-nine years & upwards, being duly sworn and examined doth depose and say, that he was during the lifetime of the aforesaid Daniel Kittle referred to in the preceding affidavits, well acquainted with said Daniel Kittle, that said Daniel Kittle and this deponent were both members of the regiment of militia commanded by Colonel Abraham Wemple during the war of the revolution but this deponent cannot say to what particular company said Daniel was attached, but thinks it was the one of Captain Jesse VanSlyck. This Deponent himself being a member of the Company of Captain Abraham Oothout in said Regiment—this deponent cannot specify the services performed in said war by said Daniel except those which he performed in connection with this deponent at Stone Arabia & Germantown or German Flatts in this state in the years 1779 & 1781: to wit—this deponent was on duty in the garrison at Stone-Arabia in that state in the month of October 1779, and when he had nearly served out the term for which he was called to serve on this occasion, namely about ten or twelve days before his time expired, he saw said Daniel Kittle on duty in said garrison, but cannot tell (as he then did not enquire) how long said Kittle had been there on duty before he this deponent started for Schenectada at the expiration of his said term over and above or in addition to said ten or twelve days, that this deponent remembers the circumstance of Daniel Kittle's being at said garrison at the time and for the period specified before he this deponent returned home to Schenectada, from having seen him at the same mess with one Harmanus Peters with whom this deponent was familiarly acquainted—that he this deponent on his return home to Schenectada after he performed the tour or served out the term above referred to, was immediately drafted to serve another term at Stone Arabia aforesaid—on his arrival at Stone Arabia in pursuance of this Draft, which was not more than a week from the time or day on which his first term above described, had expired, he found said Daniel Kittle still on duty at said fort of Stone Arabia and that said Daniel Kittle continued on duty as aforesaid until about ten days or more of the second term of service of this deponent had expired.

The detachment of militia from said city with which this deponent served out his first term, was Captain Banker (4), and he served his second term under Lieutenant Roseboom(5) but this deponent cannot tell who the officers were that commanded the detachment to which said Daniel Kittle belonged—but remembers that General Ten Broeck (6) from the City of Albany had command of the garrison at Stone Arabia, when said Daniel Kittle was stationed there—That in the summer of the year 1781, the whole Regiment of Colonel Abraham Wemple aforesaid was ordered to Fort Plank—that this deponent & said Daniel Kittle as members of said Regiment accompanied it to Fort Plank under command of Major Wemple who was attached to said Regiment—That after said Regiment had been on duty at Fort Plank about two weeks, a detachment of said Regiment under command of said Captain Banker was ordered to Germantown to guard the farmers at that place which bringing in their harvest, which they did, and after performing this service returned again to Fort Plank aforesaid that said Daniel Kittle and this deponent served both in said detachment & returned together to said Fort Plank that the time said Detachment thus served, or the time that elapsed for in going to Germantown, remaining there while the farmers brought in their harvest & returning to said fort Plank was not less than two weeks—that when said detachment returned to said Fort Plank they were discharged & returned home—this deponent further saith, that he remembers well to have seen Daniel Kittle on duty at the taking of Burgoyne, but cannot tell how long he served in that expedition.
